

Richmond Park

3 June 2008

An evening of music, poetry and song The skies above Richmond Park

The Holly Lodge Centre is delighted to invite you to an evening of music, poetry and song in the presence of HRH Princess Alexandra in the Belvedere, Pembroke Lodge, Richmond Park at 7.00 for 7.30 on Tuesday, 3 June 2008. The event will be staged by Paddy Hughes.

The theme of the evening will be the skies above Richmond Park and the musical entertainment will be provided by several accomplished singers and musicians, including Kathryn Hide from the Royal Opera, Jo Garcia, a cellist with the English Chamber Orchestra and the classical guitarist Wendy Partridge. A buffet supper, including wine, will be served in the interval. The ticket price is £30 (concessions £25) and all money raised from the evening will be in support of the Holly Lodge Centre.

The Holly Lodge Centre, whose by-line is 'special needs in a special place', offers a range of educational activities related to the natural and historical resources in Richmond Park from photography to pond dipping. The activities are designed for everybody regardless of age, ability or culture but children and adults with special needs are particularly welcome.
